Call for Musical Theatre performers, directors, and scholars

Bellevue Youth Choirs (BYC) is seeking musicians and scholars to lead an online workshop introducing and exploring musical theatre. Each meeting of the workshop will focus on an aspect of the musical theatre tradition. We want to invite our choristers to expand their knowledge of what they can experience through music as an artist and an audience member.

This four-week session should encourage and support BYC's mission statement to "offer unmatched musicianship training, inspired performances, and a joyful, spirited community for youth."

We look forward to hearing what you can offer our choristers. Here are some ideas for topics:

- ◆ Learning Healthful Belting
- ◆ Use of head voice in musical theatre
- ◆ Auditions
 - ◆ Working with an accompanist
 - ◆ Choosing or transposing music for your range
- ◆ From Gilbert & Sullivan to Miranda (and everything in between)
- ◆ Music reading importance
- ◆ Ensemble singing

Our topics are flexible, as you are the expert in your field.

Please contact Nicholas Gorne via e-mail if you are interested in leading our musical theatre workshop.

Please include:

- ◆ A letter sharing what you would like to share in the four sessions (60-90 minutes each) of the workshop
- ◆ A video, audio, or written resume detailing your performance and teaching experience.
- ◆ A website, if you have one.

We will compensate you for your time and act as a support as we work to present this online workshop. We will have a facilitator and provide the platform. Please include your fee schedule if you have one.
